Dear Sam,
I know you have trouble with listening. I have some ideas that may help you. Before you start to listen, you should relax yourself. When you are listening, listen carefully to the first sentence and try to do some thinking. And it's important for you to remember some important facts. You can listen with some questions: What happened? When, where and how? What was the result? What does the speaker want to tell us? Don't be nervous when you hear some words that you don't know. Write down the key words while you're listening. If you practice listening this way, I think you can improve your listening soon. Don't give up! Try your best!

Yours,
Wendy

Dear Linda,

Thanks for your letter about Disneyland in Paris. I would like to tell you something about Sunny Village, where I live now.

It's a small village in England with a train station nearby. So it's convenient for us to travel around. There are many old houses with beautiful gardens which are open for the Village Festival. You must be surprised to know there are two churches in this small village. There is also a primary school and a library in the village. The best time to visit our village is in summer. We have the Village Festival in June. You can enjoy lots of concerts, tea parties and garden shows. And in July, you can join the Fun Run to raise money for the charities in England.

It's a really interesting village, isn't it? Would you like to visit our village soon? I am looking forward to seeing you soon.

Yours,

Amy

Every school has its own rules for students. I agree with some of them, but disagree with others. For example, I don't think we should wear uniforms every day. The uniforms are of bad quality and they make us feel uncomfortable. Another rule I don't like is that we aren't allowed to drink drinks like cola in school. It's really strange because the supermarket in the school always sells drinks. Of course, there are some good rules. For example, students are not allowed to smoke. Smoking is really bad for teenagers.

5. Poor.

B) I am a student of Grade 9 now. I am busy with my study. I have no time to play sports and I feel tired every day. I am stressed out. As for my study, I am weak in Chemistry and I get poor grades. I am worried about my study so I can't fall asleep at night.

I know I have to solve these problems. First, I will try to relax myself by listening to music or playing badminton after school. Second, I will ask my teachers or classmates for help. I will take notes in class. Third, I will take a long walk before sleep and drink a glass of milk. I think they will help me to have a good sleep.

He has received many awards for his songs. He even has written many of his own songs. I think he is a singer with a great talent for music.

Dear Niel,

Thank you for your message about table manners in Italy. Here are some things you need to know when you visit a friend's home in China. First of all, you are supposed to eat with a pair of chopsticks, a bowl and a spoon instead of a knife and fork. Second, it's polite to let the oldest people start eating first. Third, you should always have your bowl in your left hand while eating. It's impolite to put it on the table. Welcome to China and try some delicious Chinese food.

Yours,

Joe

Yesterday was really a bad day for me. After breakfast, I decided to go to the city to buy a mobile phone. When I got to the bus station, I found I had left my wallet at home, so I had to go back home to get it. At 12:30, I got on the bus. Unluckily, there was something wrong with the bus on the half way. I had to wait for five hours. By the time I got to the city, all the mobile phone stores had already been closed. So I had to return to the bus station. The environment around us is getting worse and worse. In some places we can't see fish swimming in the rivers or trees on the hills. Some people even have no clean water to drink. So I think we must do something to protect the environment. But what can we do? We can go to school on foot or by bike, we can use shopping baskets instead of plastic bags when we go shopping and we can use both sides of the paper when we write. In a word, if everyone pays more attention to our environment, there will be less pollution and our life will be better.

B) One possible version:

Last National Day holiday I went to visit Mount Emei with my friends. On my way to the top of the mountain, I saw some tourists throw rubbish here and there. I was very angry. I think they shouldn't do that. Something must be done to stop this.

First, we must make the visitors realize their bad behaviors do great harm. Second, the government can develop laws to fine the visitors for bad behaviors so that they won't do that again. Third, we can put up some signs to remind people of behaving well in public.

In these ways, the bad behaviors in the tourist spots will be fewer and fewer.
